SUBJECT: GROUPS SEEKING INDEPENDENCE FOR PUERTO RICO
COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM IS-PRN

Sources of the San Juan Office have for a period of time advised of romantic interests existing between JUAN MARI BRAS, head of the Movimiento Pro-Independencia de Puerto Rico (Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIPR), and [REDACTED], a one time Federacion Universitaria Pro-Independencia (Federation of University Students for Independence) (FUPI) member and estranged wife of [REDACTED] a member of the MPIPR recently arrested for complicity in an attempt to bomb a Texaco Oil facility in Guaynabo, Puerto Rico.

San Juan proposes that a letter, prepared in the Spanish language on plain unwatermarked paper, be sent to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] his brother and head of the MPIPR Mission in San Juan, Puerto Rico, pointing out the above and indicating that the situation should be remedied before the press is advised and it becomes known how the MPIPR, through the actions of its leader, rewards faithful advocates of independence. The letter may be worded as follows:

"MARI continues to be seen with [REDACTED] If you are too much of a fool to resent being a cuckold, I as a friend will not allow it to go on. If you will not stop this I will expose this fat clown to all, including our friend [REDACTED] of the press."

[REDACTED] referred to above is [REDACTED] a daily San Juan Spanish language newspaper and a long time enemy of MARI BRAS and the MPIPR.

Memorandum recommends approval, with one modification, of San Juan's proposed counterintelligence ploy directed against Juan Mari Bras, Secretary General of the Puerto Rican Independence Movement (MPIPR). The MPIPR is the largest and most dangerous of the militant Puerto Rican proindependence groups. Letter is attached for transmittal to San Juan.

In order to create dissension between Juan Mari Bras and [REDACTED] the San Juan Office proposes to prepare an anonymous letter to the [REDACTED] pointing out that Mari continues to be seen with [REDACTED]. The letter states further that if [REDACTED] is too much of a fool to resent the romance between his wife and Mari, the writer as a friend will not allow the romance to go further. The letter states that if [REDACTED] does not stop the romance the writer will expose it publicly, including giving it to [REDACTED]. Considerable information has been developed attesting to the notorious illicit romances indulged in by Mari and [REDACTED] has attacked Mari and the MPIPR [REDACTED] many times much to the discomfort of Mari. [REDACTED] was recently arrested for complicity in a bombing attempt on an oil facility in Puerto Rico and [REDACTED] is the head of the MPIPR Mission in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Both [REDACTED] are listed on the Security Index, Priority II.

While San Juan recommended only that the letter be directed to the [REDACTED] it is believed that a copy of the letter should also be [REDACTED].

The letters should be mailed simultaneously to the [REDACTED]. The letters will be prepared on unwatermarked paper and prepared in such a manner so there will be no possible link to the FBI.

ACTION:

If you approve, attached letter will be sent to San Juan authorizing it to proceed with this counterintelligence measure.

Recent information shows that several Puerto Rican Socialist League (LSP) members traveled to New York to discuss with individuals there the proposal that [REDACTED] Secretary General of the LSP, be deposed and that [REDACTED] be substituted as the new leader of the LSP. Other information indicates that on 10/2/69 [REDACTED] and a number of LSP members were arrested by the police of Puerto Rico (POPR) on charges of Illegal Possession of Firearms. [REDACTED]

In view of the above, San Juan should give prompt consideration to counterintelligence moves at this time directed against [REDACTED]. Since certain LSP members are apparently disenchanted with him, it appears now would be an appropriate time to discreetly let it be known (for example, by anonymous letter) that the reason for the recent arrests of LSP members is [REDACTED] indiscretions. Anonymous letter could be so written that it would clearly point to [REDACTED] as police source who led to the arrests.

You should consider the above in light of the situation as seen by your office. Submit your comments and recommendations for Bureau consideration. No anonymous letter should be mailed without prior Bureau consideration.

It can be seen that a successful move against [REDACTED] would result in the removal from prominence of a militant, dangerous separatist and would [REDACTED]

Re Bureau airtel to San Juan, 10/28/69.

During early October, 1969, sixteen (16) members of the Liga Socialista Puertorriquena (Puerto Rican Socialist League) (LSP) were arrested by the Police of Puerto Rico (POPR) on various firearms violations. On 11/12/69, [REDACTED] POPR, advised that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] about due to the work of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who for approximately the past [REDACTED] and one-half years has worked in an undercover capacity for [REDACTED] POPR, as an LSP member. Subsequent to the arrests, during normal legal proceedings, it was made known to the LSP that [REDACTED] had been an undercover agent for [REDACTED] POPR, inasmuch as he had signed the complaints for the arrests. Thus, [REDACTED] was voluntarily uncovered by [REDACTED] POPR in effecting these arrests. Prosecutive action is still pending in all of these cases.

On October 16, 1969, [REDACTED] advised that he had received information from a [REDACTED] source that [REDACTED]

San Juan proposes that an anonymous letter, prepared in the Spanish language on plain unwatermarked paper, be sent to various LSP members in Puerto Rico and to [REDACTED] President of the PLP in New York City, pointing out the shortcomings of [REDACTED] as leader of the LSP. The letter may be worded as follows:

"Comrades of the Liga Socialista Puertorriquena:

"A few facts for your consideration:

"In 1954 our organization was formed with the idea of having a close-knit group of militant young men to advance the teachings of Marxism-Leninism and to lead in the fight for the independence of our beloved country.

"Since that time much has been written but nothing has been accomplished by us. The sad truth is that while our "leader" sits in his ivory tower writing "poetry," Mari Bras gains hundreds of followers by acting and leads in our struggle for independence. While we talk, others act. While our old men discuss theories, our young men are carrying the struggle into the streets and onto the campuses. While our young men travel to other countries to establish ties with other peoples who think as we do, our "leader" indiscriminately tells the police of our plans and actions.

"While our young men gain publicity by bombing stores and destroying the ROTC building, the only thing the newspapers can publish about us is the fact that we managed to get ourselves arrested for carrying weapons, while all other independentistas carry guns unmolested.

"Thanks to the indiscretion of our "leader" the police have been in our very midst reporting our every move. Who knows how many other informants attend our meetings!

"The time to press for our independence is now. The people to do it are our young men.

"What do you think? Is it time for a change???

"An Activist"

The San Juan Office feels that the sending of this letter should create dissension within the LSP and possibly result in splitting the LSP into various splinter groups. It is also felt that this letter would weaken the prominence of [REDACTED] and would lessen the weight of his suspicions against [REDACTED]

SJ 105-3953 Sub I

The comments in the proposed letter refer to the arrests of the LSP members, the recent firebombings of American stores in the San Juan area, and the attack on the ROTC building at the Rio Piedras campus of the University of Puerto Rico (UPR) on September 26, 1969. One of the leaders in the attack on the ROTC building on 9/26/69, was 29 year old LSP member, [REDACTED], who received a great deal of publicity in San Juan newspapers. [REDACTED] is listed as being "Sub-Director" of the LSP. It is felt that the militant language of the proposed letter is characteristic of [REDACTED] and might cause [REDACTED] to suspect [REDACTED] his close lieutenant, of being the author of the proposed letter and vying for leadership of the LSP.

San Juan proposed sending this letter to the following LSP members in Puerto Rico:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is a [REDACTED] in the Southern Committee of the LSP at [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] is a close friend of the [REDACTED] at San Juan. It is felt that by sending copies of the letter to these two individuals, the letter will surely be brought to the attention of [REDACTED]

New York's comments are requested, particularly concerning whether or not this letter should be sent to [REDACTED] suggestions as to additional individuals in New York City to whom the letter should be sent, and the impact that a letter of this type might have within the PLP.

Bureau's comments are also solicited.

Re SJlet, 11/21/69.

Concerning the tri- [REDACTED] in November, 1969, as reported by [REDACTED], the NYO has no specific information concerning contacts made, topics discussed, and decisions reached by either side. As the results of any contacts are unknown, it is felt unwise to direct the proposed letter to [REDACTED] or to anyone outside of the SJO territory. Otherwise this possible schism within the LSP should be viewed as a local matter and of little interest to Bureau subjects residing outside of Puerto Rico.

New York Observations

[REDACTED] (c)
NYO feels that [REDACTED] (never known to be controlled by any organization, group or individual) is very resilient. If bounced from the LSP, he undoubtedly will have a new group in short order. If not forced out, on the other hand, the LSP can be expected to become more and more impotent because of [REDACTED] actions in the past. [REDACTED]

Memorandum recommends approval of San Juan's proposed counterintelligence ploy directed against  Secretary General of the Puerto Rican Socialist League (LSP). The LSP is a militant Red-Chinese-oriented Puerto Rican proindependence group. Letter to San Juan attached.

The New York Office, which also considered this counterintelligence move, recommends letter be sent only to LSP members in San Juan since New York Office feels possible schism should be viewed as a local matter of little interest outside Puerto Rico.

The anonymous letter will be prepared in such a manner that there would be no possible link to the FBI.

Re Bureau letter to San Juan, 4/16/70.

During the latter part of 1969, positive indications were developed that there existed some major disagreements among leaders and members of the Liga Socialista Puertorriquena (Puerto Rican Socialist League) (LSP). A number of prominent LSP members were questioning the leadership of [REDACTED] and indicated that he should be replaced.

An analysis of the overall situation at that time resulted in the conclusion that the situation presented an opportunity to disrupt the organization by taking advantage of the existing situation utilizing a counterintelligence measure. An anonymous letter was composed for distribution among selected members of the LSP, including some of those who were directly involved in the disagreement described above. The letter was worded to take advantage of the disagreement and to increase the bitterness that was already developing. The letter was approved by the Bureau and subsequently mailed, on 12/19/69. Although no first hand direct report of the effect of the letter is available for lack of any sources within the organization, subsequent developments establish a significant measure of success for this counterintelligence device.

(COUNTERINTELLIGENCE)
INTERNAL SECURITY - PUERTO RICAN NATIONALISTS

Memorandum is to advise of positive results achieved against the Puerto Rican Socialist League (LSP). The LSP is a militant Red-Chinese-oriented Puerto Rican proindependence group.

During latter part of 1969, information available to Bureau indicated major disagreement existed among leaders and members of the LSP. Information also showed LSP members were questioning the leadership of [REDACTED]. Bureau at that time instructed San Juan to prepare counterintelligence move targeted against [REDACTED] and the LSP. It was felt a successful counterintelligence move against [REDACTED] and the LSP could remove from prominence this militant dangerous separatist and could weaken and/or neutralize the LSP.

San Juan prepared anonymous letter which pointed out shortcomings of [REDACTED] leadership and his indiscretions in leaking information to police source which led to arrests of a number of LSP members. Letter was so written that it was felt additional dissension would be created within the LSP. With approval of the Director, San Juan's letter was sent on 12/19/69 to selected LSP members in San Juan.

A current analysis of situation in San Juan shows a number of dissident LSP members (all of whom were recipients of our letter) have broken off from LSP and have formed a splinter group. The LSP at the moment, in view of this, is disorganized and [REDACTED] is reported attempting to recruit new members in order to restore life into the LSP. It appears reasonable to conclude this counterintelligence effort has succeeded in taking advantage of noted dissension in LSP and has created an irreparable split between [REDACTED] and a number of his most devoted lieutenants.

Re San Juan letter to Bureau, 5-4-70.

Enclosed for the Bureau is 1 copy each of a letter written in the English and Spanish languages, prepared by SA [redacted]. This letter will, if approved by the Bureau, be disseminated to the rank and file of the Movimiento Pro-Independencia de Puerto Rico (Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIPR) in an attempt to create dissension and distrust amongst the membership.

As the Bureau is aware, MARI BRAS has utilized the official MPIPR newspaper "Claridad" to write an editorial condemning the assassination of U. S. military personnel by clandestine terrorist groups and to declare that the movement is near for all "patriotic" Puerto Ricans to engage in armed struggle against the legal government of Puerto Rico and the U. S. military.

This editorial has apparently caused consternation within the ranks of the MPIPR as many of the members do not feel that they have either the strength or the facilities to engage in violent activities at this time. This letter is intended to utilize this editorial and its impact in an attempt to factionalize the MPIPR and to reduce MARI BRAS' effectiveness as a spokesman.

SAN JUAN

AT SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO: Will await Bureau approval of the counter-intelligence letter.

Comrades,

We believe that it is time for a self-criticism and an evaluation of the goals of our Movement. It appears that some of our spokesmen are suffering from "the cult of the individual". We are being led, like sheep to the slaughter, to a disaster for our comrades, our movement, and our beloved country. Let us pause and reflect upon our actions while there is still time.

Who made the decision for the Movement to take the step from organized open legal action against the repressive forces to actively support the clandestine groups in physical attacks on the Yankee military? Why, at this time, do certain individuals claim the right to expose our wives and children to the back lash certain to result from political assassination? It is one thing to destroy Yankee business, but it is a far more serious to openly engage in gunfire on the streets of San Juan. If this activity continues, which of us will be able to leave our home in the morning and be certain that the repressive forces will not have us or our children in their gunsights? How can our leadership be so lacking in judgement as to make a decision involving not only ourselves, but the family of each and every Puerto Rican patriot?

Is our struggle against the Yankee imperialists so near to defeat that we must muster ourselves for immediate and complete annihilation in a futile attempt to gain world opinion and sympathy? Is our campaign in conjunction with the progressive peoples of the world such a fiasco that we can only offer ourselves and our families as sacrificial lambs on the altar of the class struggle? There is not one of us who is not ready to join our brothers in Vietnam to defeat the Yankee imperialism. But, our homes and the streets of San Juan are not the jungles of Vietnam. The repressive forces need only to lay in ambush for us at our homes to defeat the vanguard of the Puerto Rican people. Then, what will occur? Do our leaders think that they will be afforded police protection? Then, with the vanguard of the people massacred, who will lead the fight for independence--the faggots and lackeys of the PIP?

We can reach only two possible conclusions. One, the "cult of the individual" has caused certain of our leaders to become so psychotic that they actually believe the "historical crisis" has arrived in Puerto Rico. However, as individuals who actually did participate in the march against SMO on May 3rd and in the recent action against the Yankee Navy's enslavement of Culuebra, we know how many militants are currently involved in the Movement's activities at this time. Without arms, training and other essentials, we would be totally helpless against the repressive forces.

The only other conclusion is the possibility that the police informers and agents provocateurs have infiltrated the highest levels of our leadership. Could the enemies of the independence movement have expected, in their wildest dreams, that their primary enemy would expose its membership to open reprisal? Only through the use of Judas goats could such insanity come to pass.

Comrades, search your minds! The future of our struggle and a Puerto Rico free of the Yankee octopus is at stake.

1% Cuban, Researcher Says

Dade Latin Population Put At 307,000 and Still Growing

By FRANK SOLER
Of Our Latin America Staff

An economic research analyst Tuesday estimated that the Latin population of Dade County was more than 307,000 — and growing.

Richard Tobin of First Research Corp. said his company estimated there were 307,024 Spanish-speaking persons living in Dade County as of January 1970. Tobin said that about 90 per cent of these are of Cuban extraction.

The over-all figure, he said, means about 22 per cent of the area's 1.4-million population is Latin.

TOBIN said the figure represented an increase of 90,000 — up from 221,000 — over the last 3½ years.

The figures coincide with recent estimates by the Standard Rate and Data Company, a national media market research firm, which reported 303,000 Latins living in Dade County as of January, he said.

The estimates were revealed at a Latin market seminar at the Dupont Plaza Hotel.

A PREVIOUS report by First Research, prepared for advertisers interested in the Latin market's potential, had estimated that there would be 308,000 Latins in the area by June 1, 1971.

Tobin attributed the growth to the number of refugees who return to the Miami area after they have been resettled elsewhere in the United States.

About 4,000 Cuban refugees arrive in the United States each month aboard the twice-daily airlift flights from Cuba to Miami.

ALTHOUGH three-fourths are sent elsewhere, many eventually find their way back to Miami and its Little Havana section.

INTERNAL SECURITY - PUERTO RICAN NATIONALIST

Memorandum recommends approval of San Juan Office's proposed counterintelligence ploy directed against Juan Mari Bras, Secretary General of the Movimiento Pro Independencia de Puerto Rico (Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIPR). The MPIPR is the largest and most dangerous of the militant Puerto Rican proindependence groups. Letter is attached for transmittal to San Juan.

The 3/15/70 issue of "Claridad" contained an article bearing the byline of Mari Bras entitled "Political Comment, Act of War." "Claridad" is the official newspaper of the MPIPR. This article condoned the assassination of United States military personnel stationed in Puerto Rico and declared that the time was approaching for Puerto Rican "patriotic forces" to engage in warfare against the Government of Puerto Rico and the United States military.

This article apparently caused consternation within MPIPR ranks. Many MPIPR members feel they have neither the strength nor resources to engage in violent activities at this time, nor do they feel that the "moment of crisis" has arrived. Mari Bras has been openly criticized by some MPIPR leaders who feel he has crossed the line between respectable independentist activity and illegal acts of violence.

San Juan proposed an anonymous letter designed to exploit dissension among MPIPR members as a result of public support of terrorist activity by Mari Bras be sent to selected MPIPR members in San Juan and New York City. San Juan also proposed to send copies of this letter to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who are editorial writers for Spanish-language newspapers published daily in San Juan. Both individuals have previously published articles critical of Mari Bras and the MPIPR. Sending of the proposed letter could create additional dissension and distrust within the MPIPR.

clandestine terrorist groups and declared that the moment was near for all "patriotic" Puerto Ricans to engage in insurrection against the legitimate authorities. On 4/21/70, MARI BRAS appeared on island-wide TV where he hoped to gain more adherents for the MPIPR.

It is believed by the San Juan Office that this letter will assist in maintaining the rancor of this dispute and in further alienating MARI BRAS from the dissidents. It is the expectation of the San Juan Office that this crisis will permanently factionalize the MPIPR into small ineffective groups.

The Bureau is requested to expeditiously review this letter as rapid dissemination appears necessary at this time.

Existe una crisis en nuestro Movimiento y por lo tanto ha llegado la hora de la decisión.

Continuamos la senda que nos hemos trazado en nuestra valiente lucha en contra del Imperialismo Yankee, o vamos a permitir que un egocéntrico con delirios de grandeza nos convenza que un puñado de muchachos "pega fuego" puede ganar la revolución?

Mari Bras se ha virado en contra de sus compañeros de la manera mas vil y cobarde. Hasta el intelecto mas brillante de nuestro Movimiento, el Camarada Cesar Andreu, ha sido censurado y condenado al ostracismo fuera del Movimiento por este despreciable déspota.

Camaradas, ha llegado la hora de alzar nuestras voces para oponernos al poder de un solo hombre. No estamos luchando para destronar el Imperialismo Yankee a costa de soportar una tiranía en nuestro propio suelo.

Dios nos libre del poder de un solo hombre!

Comrades:

Our movement is going through a crisis, therefore, the time to make a decision has arrived.

Do we continue to follow the road which has brought us so far in our valiant effort against Yankee Imperialism? Or do we allow the raving thoughts of an egomaniac who believes that the revolution can be won with a handful of youthful burners?

Mari Bras has turned against his fellow comrades in the most underhanded and cowardly manner. Even the most remarkable mind of our movement, Comrade Cesar Andreu, has been censured and ostracized from the Party by this petty despot.

Comrades, raise your voices in opposition to one-man-rule. We are not striving to overthrow Yankee Imperialism in order to gain the mantle of home-grown tyranny.

ReSJairtel 7/1/70.

Reairtel enclosed proposed letter for mailing as additional counterintelligence measure against captioned subject and the Puerto Rican Independence Movement (MPIPR).

It is noted a similar letter was approved for mailing by the Bureau 7/2/70. This letter was to be sent in order to take advantage of consternation within the MPIPR ranks caused by article of Mari in which Mari condoned the assassination of U.S. military personnel stationed in Puerto Rico and in which article he declared the time was approaching for Puerto Rican "patriotic" forces to engage in warfare against the Government of Puerto Rico and the U.S. military.

The Bureau has not been advised whether this approved mailing has been accomplished and the results thereof.

The sending of an additional letter as proposed in reairtel does not appear to be feasible at this time as it could convey to discerning MPIPR militants that a police organization was mounting an attack against them.

In view of above, Bureau authority for this counterintelligence measure denied.

This action led to the resignation of a number of leaders of the MPIPR.

Re San Juan letter to the Bureau, 7/17/70.

The 7/24/70 edition of "El Imparcial" a Spanish language daily newspaper published in San Juan, Puerto Rico, contained a six column article written by [REDACTED] entitled, "New Trends and the Urban Guerrillas".

This article, which quoted most extensively from the counterintelligence letter prepared by the San Juan Office, reviewed the reorganization and the intercommunal struggle within the Movimiento Pro-Independencia De Puerto Rico (Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIPR) due to the decision of the MPIPR leadership to radicalize the Movement. The article noted the letter's claim that HANI BRAS is guilty of "the cult of the personality" and that the decision to radicalize the Movement was leading them to their destruction. The author also noted that the "Urban Guerrillas" are easily identified and sometimes even caught.

He noted the comment about the Partido Independiente Puertorriqueno (Independent Party of Puerto Rico) (PIP) being weak lackeys [REDACTED] that he could not understand the MPIPR thinking. He noted that the MPIPR was becoming more radical and moving towards the MPIPR position and now they are accusing them of being weak lackeys. He stated that it would be interesting to learn the current point of view of HENRI BERRIOS, the PIP President, as he (BERRIOS) claimed not long ago that once victory was achieved over "imperialism", a "socialist republic" would be established in Puerto Rico.

The author also noted the letter's comments about the lack of true militant activity at the present time and the lack of training and arms with the comment that the Movement's slogan is "country is courage and sacrifice". The author felt that the dissenters really are not ready to sacrifice themselves and, in fact, are becoming more cautious than what a "revolutionary" movement calls for.

He then repeated the paragraph about the possibility of police agents in the Movement's hierarchy and noted that JUAN SANTOS RIVERA, the ex-President of the Puerto Rican Communist Party, had resigned to join the MPIPR as he has become convinced that the MPIPR is on the true road to follow to attain the "socialist" republic.

As this newspaper has a large island-wide readership and [redacted] is a very well-respected columnist, the San Juan Office believes that the notoriety given the anonymous letter will be quite extensive. It is surmised that the following results will be forthcoming:

- 1) The already existing split between MARI BRAS' followers and the purged or resigned leadership will grow increasingly larger.
- 2) Those members and sympathizers of the Movement who are pro-independence but not violence-prone will hesitate to follow the MARI BRAS' line and possibly will cease their activities on behalf of the MPIPR.
- 3) The members and sympathizers of the PIP who have watched their party, though still a legitimate alternative to Statehood or the Commonwealth status, drift apart, leftward under the leadership of BRASIOS towards a possible alliance with the MPIPR, may have second thoughts as to being used by the organization which refers to them as "lackeys".
- 4) The general attitude of the people of Puerto Rico who see the MPIPR as nothing but a harmless collection of "hoons" and "crackpots" to be completely disregarded will be alerted to the violent nature of the Movement under MARI BRAS' leadership.

5) FARI BRAS and the "Young Turks" he has placed around him in the leadership positions may, possibly, be completely isolated from the moderates of the Party; thereby breaking up the Movement into a number of small, relatively harmless groups more intent on internecine warfare than the common cause.

It is the feeling of the San Juan Division that this split between the radicals and the "intelligentsia" of the MPIP is very serious and possibly irreparable. Therefore, it is felt that the mailing of the second anonymous handbill as requested in San Juan dated to the Bureau, 7/1/70, would serve to exacerbate this split. A mailing at this time would be far enough removed from the previous letter to lessen the belief that this was a coordinated campaign conducted by a police agency. Mailing it from the San Juan area would lend credence to the belief that members in the metropolitan area had taken to heart the sentiments of the first letter.

To date, no reaction has been forthcoming from appropriate confidential informants of the San Juan area. However, this is entirely reasonable as the original letter was not mailed until 7/16/70, and [REDACTED] article is quite recent.

END:

SAN JUAN

AT SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO

- 2) Will report any further developments in this matter.

Reurairtel 7/1/70 and urlet 7/31/70.

Information contained in relet concerning internal struggle within the Movimiento Pro Independencia de Puerto Rico (Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIR) resulting from recent statements and actions on the part of subject is interesting. Bureau notes that as a result of recent counterintelligence action taken by your office against subject, the widening split between subject and other MPIR leaders has been exploited. The subject's position will undoubtedly suffer as a result of the article recently published in a major San Juan newspaper, which article quoted extensively from a counterintelligence letter prepared by your office.

Bureau agrees with your observation in relet that the notoriety given to this anonymous letter through the aforementioned newspaper article will be extensive and should result in further problems for the subject and contribute to the dissension currently existing within MPIR hierarchy.

Relet contained request for Bureau authority to immediately disseminate another counterintelligence letter designed to further exacerbate the split within the MPIR. Contents of this letter were furnished Bureau by reairtel, following which you were advised that the sending of this additional letter did not appear feasible at the time.

Inasmuch as the impact of the recent newspaper article concerning subject and his leadership has not yet been fully ascertained, Bureau is of the opinion that additional counterintelligence action against subject in the form of another anonymous letter should be postponed pending further assessment of the results produced by the newspaper article. Bureau authority to mail the anonymous letter described in reairtel is therefore denied.

NOTE:

The MIPR, the largest, most dangerous of the Puerto Rican proindependence organizations, is in the midst of an internal crisis which has come about as a result of differences between subject and MIPR leaders on the use of violence and force to obtain independence for Puerto Rico. By letter 7/2/70 we approved a counterintelligence move (anonymous mailing) designed to take advantage of this crisis and to increase the dissension within MIPR ranks. Relet noted that as a result, a major San Juan newspaper on 7/24/70 published a lengthy article which quoted extensively from material contained in our anonymous letter. Relet noted, however, that reaction to this article has not yet come in and we are, therefore, denying request by San Juan contained in relet to mail a second anonymous letter, also designed to widen the split in the MIPR.

As the proposed visit of [REDACTED] to San Juan has been postponed until [REDACTED], no action is being taken by the Bureau at this time regarding recommended counterintelligence action contained in reSJtel. The Bureau, however, was favorably disposed to the implementation of the suggestion in question and will be similarly disposed to similar suggestions designed to thwart an alliance or points of agreement between communist elements and those seeking Puerto Rican independence by forceful means.

Both New York and San Juan, therefore, should remain alert for additional definitive information concerning the [REDACTED]. Upon receipt of such information, San Juan should again consider implementation of counterintelligence action deemed favorable at that time and submit same to Bureau for consideration. No action should be taken without prior Bureau authority.

Re New York letter dated 9/30/70.

On 10/9/70, records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York were caused to be checked by SC [REDACTED] for information on the subject. No record was found identifiable with him.

On 10/12/70, records of the Bureau of Criminal Identification and the Special Services Division of the New York City Police Department were caused to be checked by SA [REDACTED] for a record on the subject. No record was found identifiable with him.

During October and November, 1970, the following sources, familiar with Puerto Rican independentist activities in the NYC area, were contacted for information on the subject and/or a Puerto Rican answering service who is running guns into the US. Results were negative.

In view of the fact that no positive information has been obtained in the investigation of this matter, it is apparent that the anonymous caller who reported this answering service may be the subject's wife's former husband who is attempting to cause problems for the subject. The case will, therefore, be closed and in the event further information is received on this answering service, additional investigation will be conducted.

Re Bulet to San Juan dated 11/30/70.

On 1/16/71, [REDACTED], Communist Party - USA, arrived at the San Juan International Airport, with his bodyguard, [REDACTED]. As [REDACTED] alighted from the plane, he was confronted by news media representatives from WHOA Radio, WAPA-TV, "El Mundo" newspaper, "El Imparcial" newspaper, and Viguie Newsreel. [REDACTED] initially appeared surprised and stunned at the press coverage of his arrival. He was interviewed by the aforementioned news media representatives for approximately 15 minutes, as he walked through the airport. As a result of this press coverage of [REDACTED]'s arrival in Puerto Rico, the following publicity was obtained:

WAPA-TV - Film clip of [REDACTED]'s arrival and interview appeared on the 11:00 P.M. news on 1/16/71.

WHOA Radio - On 1/16/71, starting at 6:20 P.M. portions of [REDACTED]'s interview were broadcasted every hour,

On 1/25/71, [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] departed San Juan that day for New York cutting short his visit to Puerto Rico by two days. According to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] left Puerto Rico earlier than [REDACTED] because [REDACTED]

The aforementioned publicity was a counter intelligence plan of the San Juan Office in an effort to disrupt the visit of [REDACTED] to Puerto Rico, which plan was designed to thwart or prevent an alliance or points of agreement between communist elements in the United States and those elements seeking Puerto Rican independence by forceful means.

It is felt by the San Juan Office that this counter intelligence plan was extremely successful in that, due to the publicity afforded [REDACTED]'s arrival and stay in Puerto Rico, numerous scheduled meetings with Puerto Rican independence leaders were cancelled and [REDACTED] was unable to clandestinely meet and cement alliances with Puerto Rican independence elements.

MOVIMIENTO PRO-INDEPENDENCIA DE PUERTO RICO
(PUERTO RICAN INDEPENDENCE MOVEMENT) (MPIPR)

The MPIPR was organized in November, 1959, at Ponce, Puerto Rico. It has a current membership of about 700-800 persons with several thousand sympathizers. The MPIPR is organized in missions which are located in various towns throughout Puerto Rico. There are also members and sympathizers in the continental United States. The MPIPR National Headquarters is located at 1122 Ponce de Leon Avenue, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico.

(u) At the time the MPIPR was organized, it indicated that it did not advocate violence but would accept members who did. JUAN MARI BRAS, the founder and dominant leader of the organization, in a speech in 1964, threatened violence comparable to that in Algeria, 1964, if Puerto Rico became a state within the United States.

MARI BRAS, in an editorial appearing in the March 15, 1970, issue of "Claridad," the MPIPR newspaper, stated that "in Puerto Rico there is an incipient armed struggle on the part of pro-independence individuals who consider it their patriotic duty to conduct warfare against the empire which dominates us. We believe that every Puerto Rican has the right to make war against the invaders of our country. And war is mainly killing and dying."

The press of Puerto Rico has reported that the MPIPR has held numerous public meetings and demonstrations at which they protested compulsory military service for Puerto Ricans and United States policy in Vietnam. The MPIPR has further urged the boycott of elections in Puerto Rico.

On April 21, 1970, during the course of a program on WPRJ Television in San Juan, Puerto Rico, MARI BRAS stated that the MPIPR has innumerable contacts with revolutionary organizations in South America, Canada, Cuba, Europe, Africa and in Asia. Through 1969, the MPIPR had a permanent representative stationed in Havana, Cuba.

COMMUNIST PARTY OF PUERTO RICO

by JUAN SANTOS RIVERA, Secretary General of the Communist Party of Puerto Rico, Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow, stated that the Communist Party of Puerto Rico was founded in Ponce, Puerto Rico, on September 25, 1934.

A source advised in November, 1963, that JUAN SANTOS RIVERA was changing the name of the PCP and the new name would be Partido Popular Liberador (POL). In May, 1964, RIVERA publicly stated that the POL was the new name of the Communist Party of Puerto Rico.

On September 12, 1966, a second source advised that on May 1, 1963, RIVERA called a special meeting of the POL at which meeting the name of the POL was changed to the original PCP.

The second source advised on September 12, 1966, that a formal invitation had recently been received by the PCP, San Juan, from the Communist Party in Prague, Czechoslovakia, to the effect that Puerto Rico is recognized as a nation and that, therefore, the PCP is a Communist Party in its own right and not a district organization of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA). This source stated that although the PCP is not a district of the CPUSA, it is based on the same Marxist-Leninist principles as the CPUSA.

A third source has advised that the PCP received $6,000 on April 21, 1969, and $2,000 on May 2, 1969, from the CPUSA to defray the purchase of a printing shop in Puerto Rico. This same source advised that a two man PCP delegation was in attendance at the CPUSA National Convention held in New York City April 30, 1969, through May 4, 1969. As a result of this participation a new liaison was established between these two parties.

This third source advised that FELIX GUEDA, PCP Secretary of Propaganda, returned from the Soviet Union in August, 1970, where he attended the International Conference of Communist Parties. Source also reported that JUAN SANTOS RIVERA and PCP Central Committee member, JUAN BAUTISTA PEREZ, left Puerto Rico in August, 1970, for the Soviet Union to attend the Lenin Centennial Celebration.

APPENDIX

PARTIDO INDEPENDENTISTA PUERTORRIQUEÑO
(INDEPENDENCE PARTY OF PUERTO RICO) (PIP)

The PIP was founded in 1948, but has declined in votes drastically since 1952. The party first lost legal standing when it failed to poll the required five percent of the total vote cast in the elections of 1960. The PIP was placed on the ballot by legislative edict for the 1964 elections, but again failed to poll the required number of votes. After being placed on the 1968 ballot by fulfilling all legal requirements for recognition as a political party by petition, the PIP received less than three percent of the total vote cast, again losing its status as a registered party.

On March 10, 1970, Mrs. ROSITA M. CORDOVA, Secretary to the Superintendent, Commonwealth of Puerto Rico Elections Board, advised that at the January 23, 1970, meeting of the Elections Board, the PIP was certified as a legally constituted political party in Puerto Rico by reason of petition.

The January 26, 1970, edition of "The San Juan Star," an English language daily newspaper published at San Juan, Puerto Rico, reported that during his speech, accepting the presidency of the PIP, ROSEN BERRIOS MARTINEZ pledged himself to a more radical political posture, with "Christian socialism" and "pacific militance" as principal tactics. In an interview, BERRIOS placed special significance on the inclusion of other means of gaining independence in addition to going to the polls, such as more active participation in protests, marches, pickets and boycotts.

The February 24, 1970, edition of "The San Juan Star," reports that BERRIOS stated that "the only way to solve . . . the problem of military occupation in Puerto Rico is to achieve our independence as a nation."

The April 17, 1970, edition of "El Mundo," a Spanish language daily newspaper published at San Juan, Puerto Rico, contains parts of a speech given by BERRIOS wherein he says that the members of his organization are to intensify the struggle against the regime, but that violence was ruled out for his party. He added that it was more profitable for their cause "to let the invaders break the heads of those opposing their oppression than to fight them face to face." "Some day," he stated, "the lackeys of Yankee imperialism will go too far and there will be innocent victims and blood will run."

It is felt that an anonymous letter directed to the supplier of the LSP's and [REDACTED]'s funds, pointing out [REDACTED]'s apparent living beyond his means, would be most effective in curtailing [REDACTED] printing and

However, to date, investigation within the San Juan

These pages show [REDACTED]'s version of the results of his trip to San Juan. On page M-2 is included photograph depicting [REDACTED] together with [REDACTED]. It would appear that, if this photograph could be superimposed on a suitable cartoon such as that utilized in the past (see your letter 11/14/68 and Bulet 12/17/68 both entitled as in caption), much value could accrue to the Bureau. It is noted Puerto Ricans have historically disclaimed communism and that the Communist Party of Puerto Rico is still regarded with distrust and suspicion among even the most staunch advocates of Puerto Rican independence.

Accordingly, you should give prompt consideration to this and other possible counterintelligence moves directed against [REDACTED] in light of current situation as seen by your office. Submit your comments and recommendations for Bureau consideration, utilizing above caption. The FBI Laboratory would be able to assist your office in superimposing enclosed photograph on a proposed cartoon.

In order to proceed logically and to continue pressure on subversive groups in Puerto Rico, it is felt we should take advantage of [REDACTED] visit to Puerto Rico and show his relationship with [REDACTED]. It is felt that, if sufficient publicity were given to this relationship, it would have adverse effects on groups led by [REDACTED], the Puerto Rican Independence Movement (MPIR) and the Communist Party of Puerto Rico (PCP), respectively.

Following recent trip of [REDACTED], Secretary General of CPUSA, to Puerto Rico, we suggested to San Juan by relet that they consider utilizing photograph showing [REDACTED] Secretary General of the Communist Party of Puerto Rico, in cartoon showing their "marriage."

Article in "Bulletin" takes the MPIPR to task for its alliance with "Stalinists" and could add strength to our counterintelligence ploy. The "Workers League" is composed of individuals expelled from the Socialists Workers Party which has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MOVIMIENTO PRO-INDEPENDENCIA DE PUERTO RICO
(PUERTO RICAN INDEPENDENCE MOVEMENT) (MPIPR)

The MPIPR was organized in November, 1959, at Ponce, Puerto Rico. It has a current membership of about 700-800 persons with several thousand sympathizers. The MPIPR is organized in missions which are located in various towns throughout Puerto Rico. There are also members and sympathizers in the continental United States. The MPIPR National Headquarters is located at 1122 Ponce de Leon Avenue, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico.

(u) At the time the MPIPR was organized, it indicated that it did not advocate violence, but would accept members who did. JUAN MARI ERAS, the founder and dominant leader of the organization, in a speech in 1964, threatened violence comparable to that in Algeria, 1964, if Puerto Rico became a state within the United States.

MARI ERAS, in an editorial appearing in the March 15, 1970, issue of "Claridad," the MPIPR newspaper, stated that "in Puerto Rico there is an incipient armed struggle on the part of pro-independence individuals who consider it their patriotic duty to conduct warfare against the empire which dominates us. We believe that every Puerto Rican has the right to make war against the invaders of our country. And war is mainly killing and dying."

The press of Puerto Rico has reported that the MPIPR has held numerous public meetings and demonstrations at which they protested compulsory military service for Puerto Ricans, and United States policy in Vietnam. The MPIPR has further urged the boycott of elections in Puerto Rico.

On April 21, 1970, during the course of a program on WTSJ Television, JUAN MARI ERAS, founder of the MPIPR, stated that the MPIPR has considerable contacts with revolutionary organizations in South America, Canada, Cuba, Europe, Africa, and in Asia. Through 1960, the MPIPR had a permanent representative stationed in Havana, Cuba.

COMMUNIST PARTY OF PUERTO RICO

Article by JUAN SAN JUAN RIVERA, Secretary General of the Communist Party of Puerto Rico, in the February 19, 1964, issue of "Puerto Rico, Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow", stated that the Communist Party of Puerto Rico was founded in Ponce, Puerto Rico, on September 23, 1964.

Source advised in November, 1963, that JUAN SANTOS RIVERA was changing the name of the PCP and the new name would be "Frente Popular Liberador (POL)". In May, 1964, RIVERA publicly announced that the POL was the new name of the Communist Party of Puerto Rico.

(u) On September 12, 1966, a second source advised that on September 6, 1966, RIVERA called a special meeting of the POL at which meeting the name of the POL was changed to the original PCP.

The second source advised on September 12, 1966, that a letter of recognition has recently been received by the PCP, San Juan, from the Communist Party in Prague, Czechoslovakia, to the effect that Puerto Rico is recognized as a nation and that, therefore, the PCP is a Communist Party in its own right and not a district organization of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA). This source stated that although the PCP is not a district of the CPUSA, it is based on the same Marxist-Leninist principles as the CPUSA.

A third source has advised that the PCP received $5,000 on February 21, 1969, and $2,000 on May 2, 1969, from the CPUSA to assist in the purchase of a printing shop in Puerto Rico. This same source advised that a two man PCP delegation was in attendance at the CPUSA National Convention held in New York City April 30, 1969, through May 4, 1969. As a result of this participation a new liaison was established between these two parties.

This third source advised that FELIX OJEDA, PCP Secretary of Propaganda, returned from the Soviet Union in August, 1970, where he attended the International Conference of Communist Parties. Source also reported that JUAN SANTOS RIVERA and PCP Central Committee member, JUAN BAUTISTA PEREZ, left Puerto Rico in April, 1970, for the Soviet Union to attend the Lenin Centennial celebration.

Re Bulets to San Juan, 2/26/71, and 3/12/71.

As the Bureau is aware, since the ambush murders of two policemen and a RUC cadet on the campus of the University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, on 1/20/71, there have been various reprisals against "independentistas" including [REDACTED] (Bufile 105-23124), and [REDACTED] (Bufile 105-23124). In addition, there has been a noticeable change in the outlook of the general Puerto Rican public towards the violence-prone "independentistas". The general consensus appears to be highly incensed against the violence perpetrated by these groups.

[REDACTED] was planning to go into hiding because of these reprisals. To date, he has not returned from his travel to New York, New York.

To date, neither the Movimiento Pro Independencia de Puerto Rico (Puerto Rican Independence Movement) (MPIR) or the Frente de Unidad Puertorriqueña (Puerto Rican Community Front) (FUP) has been fit to print the text of [REDACTED] the conference of HAITI HANS, [REDACTED] the CUBA.

INTERNAL SECURITY - PUERTO RICAN NATIONALIST

Memorandum recommends approval of San Juan Office's proposed counterintelligence ploy directed against the Puerto Rican Independence Movement (MPIPR), the Communist Party of Puerto Rico (PCP) and the CPUSA. The MPIPR is the largest and most dangerous of the militant proindependence groups. Letter is attached for transmittal to San Juan.

[REDACTED] Secretary General of the CPUSA, traveled to Puerto Rico during January, 1971, where he planned meeting with leaders of the PCP and with leaders of the MPIPR. He planned, through these meetings, to institute cooperative action among the CPUSA and these groups. With the Director's approval, we provided [REDACTED] In view of the publicity generated [REDACTED] canceled the majority of his meetings and left Puerto Rico two days early since he could not conduct his business in privacy.

Since these meetings, [REDACTED] has had a "Communique of Solidarity" published in the "Daily World", an East Coast communist newspaper, together with a photo depicting him, [REDACTED] Secretary General of the PCP, and Juan Mari Bras, Secretary General of the MPIPR. Neither the PCP nor the MPIPR has seen fit to publish either the photo or the article.

Historically, Puerto Ricans have shunned the communist party and, in view of the increased acts of terrorism generated by independentist groups, the majority of the Puerto Ricans are seemingly shunning the independentists also.

In order to continue our pressure on subversive groups in Puerto Rico, San Juan has proposed we release the text of [REDACTED] "Communique of Solidarity" to [REDACTED] that reprinting of "Communique of Solidarity," which shows friendly relationship among the CPUSA, the PCP and the MPIPR, could destroy any aura of respectability that the above groups may have with the Puerto Rican populace. ENCLOSURE

105-90164-283-

The conference in San Juan, January 22, between the top leaders of the MPI (El Movimiento Pro-Independencia de Puerto Rico), headed by its general secretary, Juan Mari Bras, the top leaders of the Communist Party of Puerto Rico headed by its general secretary Felix Ojeda, and the U.S. Communist delegation, headed by Gus Hall, issued the following statement:

In the spirit of internationalist anti-imperialism and in an atmosphere of friendship and cordiality a meeting took place in the office of the National Mission of the MPI.

Present were Juan Mari Bras, general secretary of the MPI; Gus Hall, general secretary of the Communist Party, U.S.A.; Felix Ojeda, general secretary, Communist Party of Puerto Rico. Others present were Julio Vives Vazquez, Pedro Briges Chapel, Jenaro Rentas, Manuel de J. Gonzalez and Angel Agosto, members of the Political Committee of the MPI; Gertrudis Melendez de Perez, and other members of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of Puerto Rico, and Pat Timhey, member of the national committee of the Communist Party, U.S.A.

The talks focused on the struggle for Puerto Rican independence, and for the elimination of U.S. military, economic, and political domination and influence over Puerto Rican life. All parties agreed that Puerto Rico is subjected to a direct, classic form of colonialism by the U.S. imperialists.

The talks included a discussion about the developments in the struggle for national liberation throughout the world. The meeting took note of the new and ominous steps of escalation in Southeast Asia by the Nixon Administration. Because of this, all parties present agreed to intensify and heighten the struggle to end the U.S. aggression in Indochina.

The discussion dealt with the movements and struggles for independence in Puerto Rico, and in the U.S., with the various struggles against imperialism and war; with the struggle for black liberation, and against the special oppression of 1,600,000 Puerto Rican people now in the U.S. The talks took note of the serious nature of the present economic crisis and its severe and damaging effects upon the working people of our two nations.

The meeting developed a number of concrete forms and actions, especially around the following issues:

A. To eliminate the U.S. naval presence and its criminal bombardment of the Island of Culebra. We see this struggle as the initial stage in eliminating the presence of U.S. imperialism's military force in Puerto Rico.

B. To heighten the struggle for the freedom of Angela Davis. We see this as a struggle to save the life of a beautiful human being and symbolic of the struggle against racism and all other forms of imperialist ideology. We see it symbolic of the need for unity of all victims of imperialist oppression.

C. To expose the hypocrisy of U.S. imperialism in now proclaiming that Puerto Rico is not included in the Plattsmouth Treaty for Nuclear Free Zone Latin America. This only shows that the criminal intentions of U.S. imperialism are to continue economic, military, and political oppression of Puerto Rico; to continue it as a regional military staging area and to have, in Puerto Rico, nuclear weapon bases from which it can threaten the independence of all nations in our hemisphere.

D. The talks canvassed the meaning of the unprecedented mass militancy of the youth of our two nations. The meeting agreed on special steps that are needed to render assistance and mass support to the hundreds who have been arrested or indicted because of their courageous stand against the U.S. military draft.

E. The meeting took special note of the centrality of the need to promote unity and a fighting, militant fraternal relationship between the workingclass and trade union organizations of our two nations. We will seek ways to put an end to the ability of U.S. corporations to use the working class of one nation against their class brothers of the other.

The conference concluded, strengthening the comradeship between us in spite of the different view that each party may have about a number of things as symbolic of the future ties and friendship that will grow and deepen between our two peoples: based on an end to U.S. imperialist oppression of Puerto Rico as neighbors in independence, equality and mutual respect.
